Winery & Winemaker Crushes

Peter Michael Winery

Since 1982, the Peter Michael Winery has been setting the enological standard at their perfectly situated winery and vineyards at the western slope of Mt. St. Helena in the Knights Valley. Current winemaker Nicolas Morlet adds to the "who's who" list of phenomenal winemakers that have helped make Peter Michael Winery one of the finest in the land.

Aubert

\Winemaker/Owner Mark Aubert, literally, has roots in California's North Coast...he was born in St. Helena. A true "career" winemaker, Mark has been in the wine industry for decades. After working at some of the best wineries in California Mark and his wife Teresa founded Aubert in the late 1990's. The wines always show elegance with a true sense of place.

Kongsgaard

John Kongsgaard is one of the true iconic figures in wine today. He not only makes some of the most profound wine but his contributions to music world and to the arts makes him a Renaissance Man. It would be difficult to find someone to have more of a wine crush on.

Marcassin

Helen Turley's personal production philosophy shapes her winemaking process to be focused on quality and excellence always calling for, "great vineyards, meticulously farmed, limited yield, long hang time, and natural yeast." The 20-acre estate vineyard on the Sonoma Coast produces only 100 barrels annually. None of the wines interact with fining, filtering, or cold stabilization and are routinely aged for five years before they're released. This is among California's most highly acclaimed, intimidatingly rare treasure.

Mark Ryan Winery Summer Feature

Mark Ryan McNeilly founded Mark Ryan Winery in 1999 with the goal of making the best wines in Washington State. Largely self-taught, Mark honed the craft of winemaking through rigorous study and the welcomed advice of some of the area's most experienced producers.

Over a decade later, Mark Ryan Winery has grown in size, earned acclaim from wine-lovers and critics alike, and garnered respect from the state's elite producers. The goal, however, remains the same. Make delicious wines that represent the vineyard from which they come, making every vintage better than the last.

Mark has been a friend of ours for years, dating back to when he carried a wine bag around selling other peoples wines. Over the last few years we have been so fortunate and had so much fun creating wines with Mark tailored specifically for John Howie Restaurants. Please explore the wine list and discover some of Mark's (and ours too) handy work.

Winery & Winemaker Crushes

Aubert

Winemaker/Owner Mark Aubert, literally, has roots in California's North Coast...he was born in St. Helena. A true "career" winemaker, Mark has been in the wine industry for decades. After working at some of the best wineries in California Mark and his wife Teresa founded Aubert in the late 1990's. The wines always show elegance with a true sense of place.

Kosta Browne

For almost 20 years, Kosta Browne has crafted intensely-flavored and balanced wines from the finest regions in California, including the Russian River Valley, Sonoma Coast and Santa Lucia Highlands appellations. Founders Dan Kosta, Michael Browne and Chris Costello's dedication to quality, stewardship and commitment to customer relationships has propelled the brand to industry leader, producing some of the most sought-after new world Pinot Noirs.

Rochioli

With three generations of dedication to the land, Rochioli Vineyards and Winery has earned the reputation as one of Sonoma County's finest. This family legacy began in 1938, when Joe Rochioli Sr. purchased land he had long farmed. He had the foresight to know that the soil of the Russian River Valley would one day produce some of the world's greatest wines. His son Joe Jr. embraced this vision and today craft renowned, terrior-driven wines built on a foundation of superb fruit.

Williams-Selyem

Williams Selyem Winery began as a simple dream of two friends, Ed Selyem and Burt Williams, who pursued weekend winemaking as a hobby in 1979 in a garage in Forestville, California, and made their first commercial vintage in 1981. In less than two decades, Burt and Ed created a cult-status winery of international acclaim. Together they set a new standard for Pinot Noir winemaking in the United States, aligning Sonoma County's Russian River Valley in the firmament of the best winegrowing regions of the world. Today John and Kathe Dyson, who purchased the winery from Burt and Ed in 1998, carry on the passion for Pinot Noir winemaking without compromise. As for the wines... they just keep getting better and better.

Winery & Winemaker Crushes Leonetti Cellar

A winery with incredible prestige in Washington, Leonetti Cellar was founded in Walla's first winery. Leonetti's legacy traces back to the Leonetti Farm, first established – which became the site where owner Randy Figgins would come to plant his first vineyard in 1974. Leonetti has received international acclaim for their wines since they have cemented their place as one of the top wineries in Washington State. Winemaker, Chris Figgins, son of Randy Figgins, has been making these impressive wines since 2001. The wines have proven to clearly demonstrate remarkable aging potential and gracefully for decades

Domaine Comte George de Vogüé

Certainly the greatest estate in Chambolle-Musigny if not in greater Burgundy, de Vogüé for 20 generations has been steward of the village's top terroirs. The estate owns some 80 percent of grand cru Le Musigny, and a significant portion of grand cru Bonnes-Mares. Its premier cru Chambolle-Musigny is crafted exclusively from younger-vine fruit in Musigny; its Bourgogne Blanc is crafted from younger-vine Chardonnay grown also in Musigny (which may soon be born again as a Musigny Blanc). Yep, we have a little of that too. Mais oui, it is expensive, but oh so good!
